First Saturday
in April

The Helotes Chuck Wagon Cook-off committee is up and running, getting ready for the next cook-off. This event will be held in Old Town Helotes home of the famous Floore Country Store.

The cook-off will be the first Saturday in April which is a pleasant time of the year in South Texas with bluebonnets in bloom.

Wagons will arrive starting on Thursday and will be ready for judging Friday afternoon. A “cooks” meeting and dispersing of food goods will follow. The cooking crews are invited a cook’s ‘party’; an opportunity to meet their wagon sponsors.

Saturday will kick off with all the teams cooking up some of the tastiest chuck wagon fare known far and wide. Food will go to the judges at noon as the crowd of anxious meal ticket holders gets ready to dig in and enjoy.

For those wanting to visit the Helotes Marketplace Days is just a stroll up the street. Looking for a special gift, you will find it at the market of vendors of antiques, produce and goods and home-made goods as well.

There will be live music and dancing through out the day.

Saturday ends with the awards presentation for each of the top cooks and wagons.

There will be a cowboy breakfast on Sunday morning at camp of Gunpowder Cookin’. The public is invited for the donation breakfast. Food will be served first come, first served basis.
